

History Methods: Teaching with Historic Places

O

★ ★ ★ ★

GUAM
INANGOKKON
PRESERVATION
INADAHÍ GUÁHAN
TRUST

2014 Teacher Institute Agenda July 22 to August 1, 2014 • 10am - 4pm

July 22, Tuesday

Location: T. Stell Newman Visitor Center, Sumay

- Introduction to History Methods: Teaching with Historic Places
- Introduction to Guam Preservation Trust
- Introduction to War in the Pacific National Historical Park, National Park Service
- Lecture: Power of Place & How Historic Places Teach Us About the Past
- Fieldwork to Historic Places Part I: Tour of the War in the Pacific National Historical Park

July 23, Wednesday

Location: Latte of Freedom, Adelup

- Lecture: Preserving Our Historical Places
- Lecture: Historical Significance of Humåtak
- Lecture: Using Technology & Websites to Research Historic Places
- Lecture: Introduction to Teaching with Historic Places Lesson Plan
- Group Project: Pair up and decide on a historic place & topic

July 24, Thursday

Location: Humåtak Mayor's Office

- Fieldwork to Historic Places Part II: Tour historic Humåtak

July 25, Friday

Location: Latte of Freedom, Adelup

- Lecture: Teaching with Historic Places: An International Perspective
- Lecture: Historical Significance of Hagåtña
- Presentation & Discussion: Teaching with Historic Places Lesson Plan Models
- Group Project: Time dedicated to work on Teaching with Historic Places Lesson Plan

July 28, Monday

Location: Lujan House, Hagåtña

- Lecture: Utilizing Artifacts with Historical Places
- Lecture: Oral Histories Come Alive in Historical Places
- Fieldwork to Historic Places Part III: Tour historic Hagåtña

July 29, Tuesday

Location: Latte of Freedom, Adelup

- Lecture: U.S. Fish & Wildlife at Ritidian Overview

- Lecture: World War II Historical Significance of places in northern Guam
- Panel Discussion: Obtaining and Using Primary Sources to Relate to Historical Places
- Group Project: Time dedicated to work on Teaching with Historic Places Lesson Plan

July 30, Wednesday

Location: Latte of Freedom, Adelup

- Fieldwork to Historic Places Part IV: Tour Ritidian and World War II sites in northern Guam

July 31, Thursday

Location: T. Stell Newman Visitor Center, Sumay

- Lecture: Historical Significance of Pagat or Antantano
- Lecture: Connecting Common Core Standards to Historical Places
- Historical Museum Exploration: Teacher Resources at War in the Pacific National Historical Park
- Group Project: Time dedicated to work on Teaching with Historic Places Lesson Plan

August 1, Friday

Location: Pagat Cave, Mangilao OR Antantano, Sumay (TBA)

- Fieldwork to Historic Places Part V: Tour Pagat or Antantano
- Group Project: Time dedicated to work on Teaching with Historic Places Lesson Plan

August 14, Thursday

- 12:00 pm - Submit digital version of Group Project: Teaching with Historic Places Lesson Plan OR hard copy at National Park Service Headquarters in Skinner's Plaza, Hagåtña